

For information contact:
Robert H. Long, Jr.
717.255.7624
rhloug@thomaslonglaw.com

ACTIVE IN MUNICIPAL FINANCE

Recent Activity in Tax-Exempt Financings and Municipality Authority Reorganizations

HARRISBURG, Pa. — August 15, 2008 — Robert H. Long, Jr., Esquire, Senior Municipal Bond Attorney and leader of the firm's Public and Municipal Finance Practice Group, is pleased to announce the firm's recent closings, as bond counsel, for The Municipal Authority of the Borough of Cresson—Water System (Cambria County), Middlesex Township Municipal Authority (Cumberland County), Bear Valley Franklin County Pennsylvania Joint Authority (Franklin County), Greater Hazleton Joint Sewer Authority (Luzerne County) and Bloomfield Borough Water Authority (Perry County), and the firm's engagement and scheduled closings for Borough of Bloomfield (Perry County), the Township of Kline (Schuylkill County), and the Township of Shippensburg (Cumberland and Franklin Counties). Mr. Long is also currently lead counsel in the reorganization of a large sewer utility system from an existing municipality authority on behalf of the Borough of Frackville (Schuylkill County), the incorporating municipality.

Mr. Long is actively assisted by associate attorneys, Charles E. Thomas, III, Esquire, and Jennifer M. Sultzaberger, Esquire, in preparing and concluding the bond transactions.

Mr. Long graduated from the Dickinson School of Law, where he was an Editor of the Dickinson Law Review. He is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and Florida, in the United States Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. Mr. Long has actively practiced and specialized as a municipal bond attorney practicing throughout Pennsylvania for 40 years. He is a co-draftsman of the Pennsylvania Local Government Unit Debt Act, has lectured on state and local government finance, and has co-edited a course book for the Pennsylvania Bar Institute entitled, "Trends in Municipal Finance."

Mr. Thomas is a graduate of the University of Michigan and earned his law degree from the Wake Forest University School of Law, where he served as Business Editor of the Wake Forest Law Review. He also holds an M.B.A. from the Babcock Graduate School of Management at Wake Forest University. He is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania.

Ms. Sultzaberger graduated from Dickinson College (summa cum laude) and earned her law degree from the Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law, where she was a member of the Woolsack Honor Society. She is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania.

All three attorneys hold memberships in the American, Pennsylvania, and Dauphin County Bar Associations and are actively engaged in the National Association of Bond Lawyers (NABL), Pennsylvania Association of Bond Lawyers (PABL), and the Pennsylvania Municipal Authorities Association (PMAA).

About Thomas Long

Thomas Long is a full-service Harrisburg-based law firm carefully crafted to meet, and is fully focused on, all of the legal challenges facing municipal and privately-owned clients. The firm's attorneys are leading practitioners in municipal finance, municipality authority reorganization, corporate, public utility, gaming, commercial litigation, fidelity/surety and construction law, as well as securities regulation, products liability, estate planning and trusts, mergers and acquisitions, general civil litigation and appellate practice. For more information, please visit the firm's web site at <http://www.thomaslonglaw.com>.